Subject: Expression of Solidarity and Offer of Assistance to the Victims of the Devastating Earthquake

Your Excellency,

It is with profound sorrow and sincere sympathy that we learned of the tragic consequences of the devastating earthquake that struck your country, causing the loss of human lives, numerous injuries, and widespread destruction.

The Grand Charity of the National Grand Lodge of Greece, whose fundamental principles are solidarity, charity, and selfless service to humanity, wishes to express its heartfelt support and deepest sympathy to the people of the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela, especially to all those who are enduring this difficult ordeal.

Please consider us at your disposal to provide assistance, to the best of our capabilities, whether through financial support, the provision of humanitarian and relief supplies, or any other form of aid deemed necessary to alleviate the suffering of those affected.

We would be most grateful if you could inform us of the immediate needs of the affected communities, as well as the most appropriate and effective means through which our assistance could be coordinated and delivered.

We firmly believe that, in times when nations face adversity, solidarity and practical support represent the highest expression of humanity and fraternity.

We sincerely wish strength and courage to all those affected, a swift recovery to the injured, and the prompt restoration of the affected areas, with the hope that your country will soon return to normality.

Please accept, Your Excellency, the assurances of our highest consideration.

For the Grand Charity of the National Grand Lodge of Greece

Dimitrios Zografakis
President
